I Craft Digital Experiences

Built for Clients Who Don't Do Average.

You're not here for templates and digital duct tape. Neither am I. Every site is custom-built around your business goals and user journeys — engineered to perform, not just impress.

You work directly with the person who thinks it, builds it, and makes sure it delivers. And when the scope calls for more, I tap into a razor-sharp crew I've trusted for years — a micro-agency model without the overhead, egos, or fluff.

I've worked through tight turnarounds, launched brands from scratch, and ghost-built for award-winning agencies.

No drama. No delays. No half measures.

Who I Am

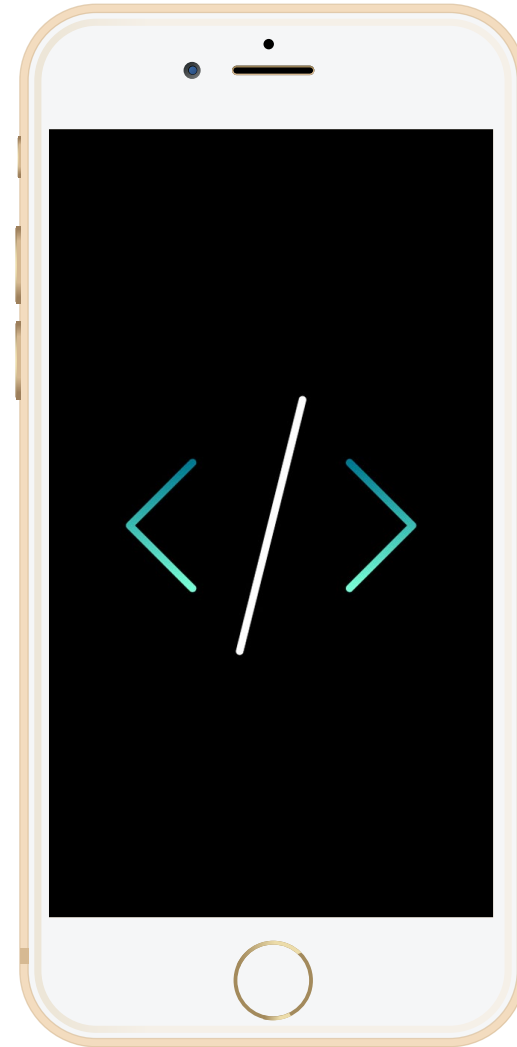

One Freelance Lead. One
Point Of Contact. Full-Scale
Delivery.

This isn't about chasing trends—it's about setting them. I build digital ecosystems engineered for impact, blending design, development, and strategy into experiences that connect, convert, and scale. Every line of code and tactic is aligned with a single mission: to move the needle where it matters most.

A Word from Me

"Innovation isn't about keeping up—it's about leading. I fuse technical precision with narrative clarity to deliver digital solutions that elevate brands and drive measurable results."

This is digital done with intent. From smart architecture to targeted execution, I create platforms that grow with you—adaptive, intelligent, and built to perform in the real world.

What I Do

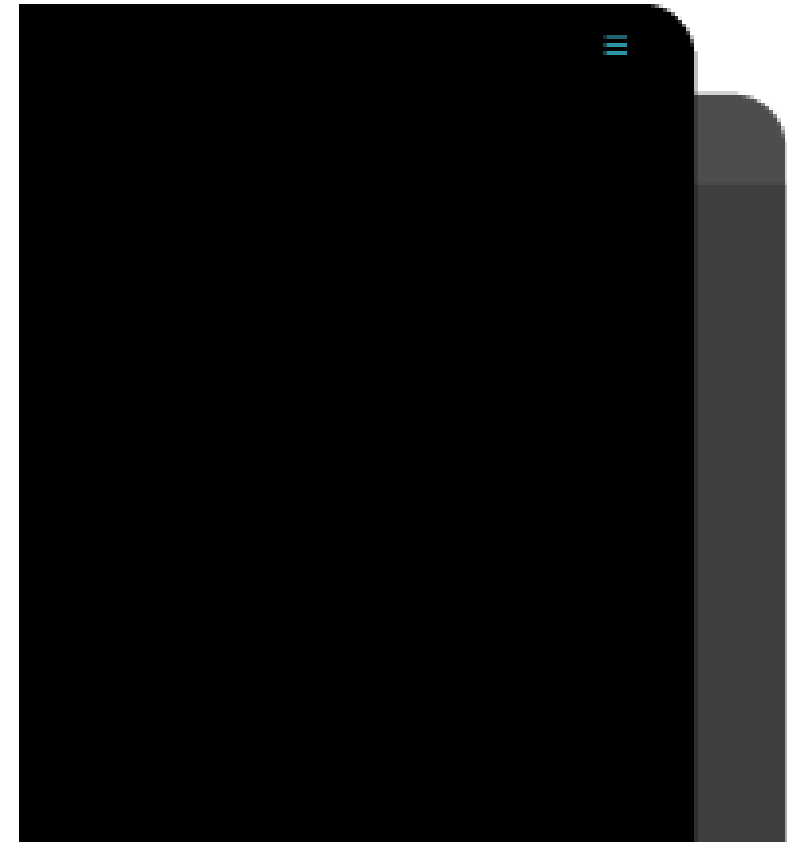

Freelance, Web & Digital
That Performs Harder, Smarter.

Since 2016, I've helped bold brands, startups, and agencies level up with digital solutions that work — not just look good.

Fast builds. Smart UX. Clean code. Conversion-led campaigns.

From web design and eCommerce to full-stack dev and digital marketing, every line, layout, and launch is crafted to move the needle.

Based in cape town. Delivering worldwide.
lean, focused, and fiercely independent.

Who I Work With

Startups. Studios.
Small Businesses.
Agencies.

Cape Town web design & development that delivers — for founders who need sites that grow with their business, marketing leads who want a dev they don't need to babysit, and agencies that need clean, quiet white-label builds. Whether you're starting fresh or scaling up — fast, lean, and performance-focused.

Need more than a solo freelancer? I've got senior developers, SEO pros, and designers I've worked with for years — ready when you are. Your project stays streamlined. Your standards stay high.

TGG37 _

Smart. Sharp. Built To Move.

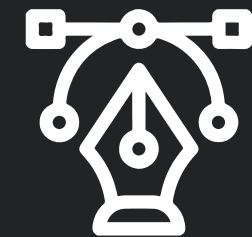

Digital Craft With A Strategic Bite

I don't just launch websites — I engineer digital performance. Every build, campaign, and line of code is crafted to move your brand forward with speed, clarity, and purpose. I decode how users move, click, and convert — and fine-tune every experience to maximise engagement and real-world results.

From standout Web Design to lean custom development and scalable eCommerce builds, every platform I deliver is fast-loading, clean-coded, and seamless across all devices. Design is sharp, logic is tight, and the performance speaks for itself.

Whether you need a sleek front-end, a powerhouse web app, or a smart SEO and PPC strategy with real traction, I build with the metrics that matter — aligned to your goals, optimised to scale, and crafted to evolve with your business.

Engineered to perform. Primed to thrive.

The Engine Behind the Execution

Freelance Firepower, Backed by a Trusted Network

Behind every sharp digital build is smarter thinking — and that's where I lead from. With deep full-stack experience and a creative mind tuned to outcomes, I bring the rare mix of digital insight, design instinct, and execution power. I don't just build websites — I build platforms that convert, scale, and perform long after launch.

I run lean, but I don't run solo. When a project calls for extra firepower, I bring in my trusted crew of senior developers, SEO pros, PPC specialists, and content creators I've worked with for years. Need a bigger build? Already on it. Need a team for launch? Already lined up.

Freelance, but scalable. No gaps. No guesswork.

Think Smart

Discovery, research, and strategy — mapped with purpose, not fluff. We define the what, why, and how before a single line of code is written.

Build Fast

Clean code, bold UX, and sharp design — delivered without the drag. Every build is performance-first and engineered to evolve with your brand

Refine & Launch

Tight feedback loops, performance-ready handover, and long-term support baked in. You get a platform that runs smooth, scales smart, and stays ready.

Digital Services That Deliver. Period.

What I Bring to the Build

From custom websites to conversion-ready platforms, I deliver clean, fast, and scalable digital solutions that go beyond the brief. Whether you're launching, growing, or rebuilding — I architect smart systems that perform on day one and evolve with your brand.

Custom Web Development

Fast, clean, and built from scratch. From brochure sites to full-stack platforms, every build is responsive, SEO-ready, and built to perform.

WordPress, Static, or Custom — no templates, no bloat.

Scalable Web Applications

Custom dashboards, booking systems, and digital tools tailored to your operations.

React, Vue, Laravel — functional, flexible, and future-ready.

eCommerce Solutions

Conversion-focused stores that do more than sell — they scale.

Shopify, WooCommerce, or custom builds — fast, frictionless, and built to move product.

Growth Support

Ongoing digital support that keeps you visible and performing.

SEO, PPC, content, hosting, audits, and technical maintenance — the essentials covered.

Marketing That Moves the Needle

No Shortcuts. Just Smart Strategy
And Real Returns.

Growth Hackers – Performance-Driven Marketing That Actually Grows Business. At Black Panther Digital, I craft freelance digital marketing strategies that move the needle — no fluff, no filler, just results. From scroll-stopping content to high-converting campaigns, every move is sharp, data-led, and built for ROI.

Before the clicks, content, or conversions — there's strategy. As a freelance digital marketing expert, I fuse insight with creativity to deliver marketing that's bold, brilliant, and built to perform. Every decision is intentional. Every touchpoint, engineered for impact.

This isn't about doing more. It's about doing what matters — with focus, firepower, and flexibility. This is the engine room of digital growth — and I keep it running at full throttle.

SEO. Built Right.

Smart structure, strong content, and clean code that helps you climb — and stay — on search. Every click earned, not guessed. Performance that drives organic growth.

PPC. Built to Win.

Sharp targeting. Scroll-stopping creative. Campaigns built to convert and scale without the fluff. Get seen by the right people — fast.

Support. Built to Last.

Ongoing maintenance, site audits, fast fixes, and secure hosting that keep you running at full speed.

WHY FREELANCE WINS

| The Framework of Success

One expert. No handovers.

I own the strategy, code, and delivery — start to finish, no guesswork or silos.

Less delay. More delivery.

Projects move faster when there's no internal back-and-forth — just focused execution.

Plug-and-play precision.

Whether you're an agency or a solo founder, I slot in fast and get straight to the work that matters.

Tighter budgets. Bigger results.

You're not paying for middle management or ping-pong tables — just measurable impact.

This isn't moonlighting. This is my lane.

Digital First

It all starts with strategy — I dive into your UX, identify friction points, and create a user-focused plan that ensures your site performs, not just looks good.

Aesthetic Logic

Design with Purpose — I create bold, intentional visuals that don't just catch the eye, but drive engagement and conversion, guiding users through seamless, purposeful interactions.

Data & Metrics

Data-Driven Decisions — I track what truly matters — engagement, conversions, and performance metrics — providing actionable insights that guide growth and evolve with your business goals.

TGG37_

Your Go-To for Digital Success

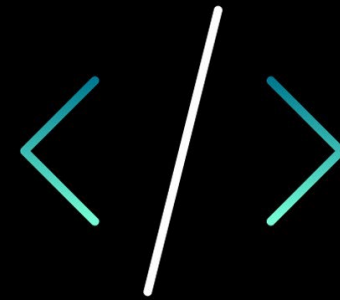

Smart Web Strategies.
Tangible Wins.

I specialize in delivering tailored, results-driven solutions across a range of industries—from eCommerce & DTC and SaaS startups to real estate, health & wellness, lifestyle & events, personal brands, and agencies. My focus is always on performance, with every project built to exceed industry demands and help clients punch above their weight.

Whether the goal is higher visibility, better conversions, or scalable growth, my work is built for impact. Think faster-loading sites, a 78% lift in organic traffic, 45% higher conversion rates, and over 100 successful projects delivered.

At Black Panther Digital, I don't just build websites—I engineer digital experiences that are measured, verified, and built for performance.

No shortcuts. Just smart strategy and real returns.

A Seamless Digital Partnership That Delivered Beyond Expectations

*"Working with Black Panther Digital has been a standout experience in digital marketing, web development, content creation, SEO, PPC, and API integration.

Philip Jo brings a rare mix of technical expertise, creativity, and attention to detail—delivering high-value solutions with a strategic, hands-on approach.

He took the time to understand our brand and objectives, particularly during the launch of our international brand into the South African market. His focus on performance, personalization, and best practices consistently exceeded our expectations.

I highly recommend Philip as a trusted digital partner for businesses aiming to scale their online presence and deliver seamless, integrated user experiences."*
